LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. PLEASANT RECREATION.

Yesterday morning we were accosted by a friend with "come, let us take a stroll," and ere we were aware of it, we found curself at the head of Meadow Valley street, viewing and criticising the wondrous change made in that locality wondrous change made in that locality have had occasion to speak so often the interests of the Nevada Central this season, still continues. We have come to the conclusion that order can always be brought out of chaos when a man like Joe, is at Sam Turner

On easting our eyes about us we discovered a goodly company, and we were wondering what brought so many together when the locomotive came puffing up and halted a while at the Summit, and a SAN PRANCISCO STOCK REPORT few of the gentlemen jumped on board. Another said "come on, we will smile together!" A third said, "if irrigation is the word, I am with you!" And another exclaimed, "if you are after tanglefoot, be careful how you imbibe." Feeling as though we had been fed on hay, we followed, and have a pleasing recollelowed, and have a pleasing recollec-tion of a long looking-glass before us, and seeing a row of hombres smiling, winking, blunking and tipping glasses together, right there and then we became a convert to spiritualism; and when the together, right there and then we became a convert to spiritualism; and when the second act was through we felt as happy as Monte Christo in his palmy days, and in love with all the company. The company's shop at this point of the road deserves honorable mention. It has quite an assortment of tools, from the best factories of the best makers East and West; the floor of the foundry was filled with moulds for the various parts of the machinery used by the mills and mines, and had it been in our power to remain an hour or so longer, we would have seen the novel process of converting moulten iron into the various shapes assed in machinery. We regret very much that we have forgotten the name of the master mechanic of the company's works, but we emphatically say that the combat we emphatically say that the com-pany is extremely fortunate in possessing so thorough a mechanic. THANKSGIVING DAY. - In accordance with the proclamation of President Grant, concurred in by Governor Bradley, to-day is recommended as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. The custom of meeting for this purpose is time-hon-ored, dating back from the early settle-ments in New England, and by the people of that portion of the country it is observed more especially than by others. Religious services will be held at the Episcopal Churchat 11 o'clock a. m. No paper will be issued from this office to-

Vandalism.—Early yesterday morning some one who may have been suffering the pangs of hunger, or may have been actuated by pure cussedness, broke a large pane of glass in the show-window of the Lafayette Restaurant. The proprietors say they would rather give a man one square meal than to have him put them to an expense of $10 for repairs.

Our streets are crowded with teams. We yesterday saw a very sociable ox team, containing 28 animals. This huge team was the locomotive power for three wagons laden with various kinds of merchandise for Wheeler, Jacobs & Sultan, Felsonthal, Cronan, Quillen, Lynch, Michaels, Levin, G. R. Alexander and Bishon & Levin, G. R. Alexander

Bishop & Lee. SHERWOOD AND BRO .- Yesterday we visited the lumber yard of Sherwood and Bro., and saw the old engine-the first steam power ever brought to this district used for sawing lumber seven years ago. Mr. S. has put this engine up for the purpose of filling any order, having a large quantity of lumber of all dimensions on hand.

BUSINESS .- Six teams arrived yesterday from Toano, in 15 days, with 90,000 pounds of general merchandise for dif-ferent merchants in town. The teams belonged to Hall & Fryer. It looks as if we were not destined to periah this Win-ter. Ploche merchants will look out for enjoying excellent health. Physicians are not in great request at present. "No passengers," says a special dispatch from Hamilton yesterday, will arrive here to-day.

A New York dispatch, of the 22d, says:
The Special Committee of Chief Engineers of several of the leading cities closed their session here to-day. They adopted a series of resolutions, urging the enacting of municipal ordinances for the preventing and extinguishing of fires. In one resolution they refused to recommend any fire-extinguisher now in use as thoroughly efficient. They also recommended that awards be offered for the invention of the best fire-escapes. It was further urged that the experience of Boston and Chicago showed the necessity of having as little inflammable material as possible used in the construction of buildings, and that careful and frequent inspections should be made of all buildings in which combustible materials are stored.
